

~Women in German~

~Women in German~

~Women in German~

WHY JOIN WiG?

All WiG members are eligible to:

- o Attend the annual conference
- o Compete for the annual best article and dissertation prizes
- o Receive the WiG Yearbook (annually) and the WiG Newsletter (quarterly)
- o Submit articles to Women in German Yearbook: Feminist Studies in German Literature and Culture, a refereed journal
- o Apply for research travel money from the Zantop fund (graduate students only)
- o Access members-only online content such as the syllabus archive
- o Participate in the governance of WiG

MEMBERSHIP FORM

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____

Zip: _____ Country: _____

Email: _____

circle your dues in the table:

Annual salary	1 yr	2 yrs
up to $25,000	$25	$45
$25,001 - $35,000	$40	$75
$35,001 - $45,000	$50	$95
$45,001 - $60,000	$65	$125
$60,001 - $85,000	$90	$175
$85,001 and above depts & libraries	$100	$185
retired	$40	$60

Online payment is coming soon, but until then, please return this form with your check or money order to:

Prof. Waltraud Maierhofer
Treasurer, WiG
German Department
The University of Iowa
IOWA CITY, IA 52242-1323

In Women in German you will find a network of engaged scholars and teachers—women and men—to support you in your feminist and interdisciplinary work.

www.womeningerman.org

~ Women in German ~

CONFERENCE

October 23-26, 2008
Snowbird, Utah

with guest author Angela Krauß

- Each annual WiG Conference features:
- o Guest writer or director from Europe
 - o Poster session
 - o Panel on combining the personal and the professional
 - o Session on educating others and ourselves
 - o Film screenings
 - o Papers on the latest feminist research in German Studies
 - o Mentoring and networking
 - o Graduate student support
 - o Planning for future conferences
 - o Conference location changes every three years (this is the last year at Snowbird)

Conference information is available on the WiG website: www.womeningerman.org.

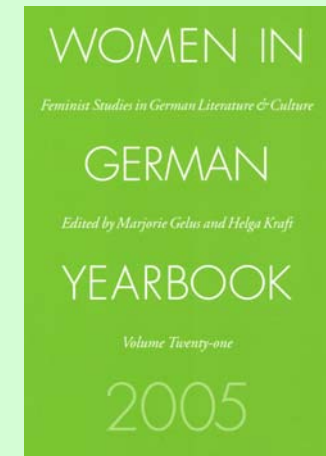

~ Women in German ~

MISSION STATEMENT

Women in German provides a democratic forum for all people interested in feminist approaches to German literature and culture or in the intersection of gender with other categories of analysis such as sexuality, class, race, and ethnicity. Through its annual conference, panels at national professional meetings, and through the publication of the Women in German Yearbook, the organization promotes feminist scholarship of outstanding quality. Women in German is committed to making school and college curricula inclusive and seeks to create bridges, cross boundaries, nurture aspiration, and challenge assumptions while exercising critical self-awareness. Women in German is dedicated to eradicating discrimination in the classroom and in the teaching profession at all levels.

~ Women in German ~

PUBLICATIONS & PRIZES

Women in German Yearbook
WiG Newsletter

WiG Prize for Best Article
WiG Prize for Best Dissertation

Zantop Travel Award for Graduate Students